

ELEVEN WOEFUL TALES ARE TOLD

And Eleven Decrees of Divorce Were Granted to Ten Women and a Lone Man.

A CHASE AFTER HER HUBBY

Sidney Lancaster Had a Merry Time Dodging His Pursuing Wife, Who Was Awarded Her Singleness.

Ten women and one man were granted divorces Friday afternoon in record time at the regular divorce matinee held in Judge Charles W. Morse's court. None of the cases were contested.

Sidney Lancaster, an engineer, who deserted his family three years ago and married another woman, can now rest in peace for his legal wife, Mrs. Mary E. Lancaster, was granted a divorce. For the last two years Mrs. Lancaster has given her husband a merry chase over the country. In every city that he stopped she notified the police and Lancaster had to move on. His last place of residence was in San Antonio, Texas, where he was conducting a grocery store. Mrs. Lancaster wrote to a friend of the family who lived there and had him watched. When he found out that he had been discovered again, he disappeared, but Mrs. Lancaster received a letter which was introduced as evidence to show that her husband had married. Through the police and friends she traced him from Salt Lake to Spokane, Portland, Seattle, Vancouver, back to San Francisco, Los Angeles and into Texas. They were married in Corning, Ark., on July 28, 1898. While employed at Bingham canyon on July 13, 1906, he deserted her and married a woman with whom he eloped. They have two children, of whom Mrs. Lancaster was granted the custody. Since her husband left her she has conducted a rooming house for a living.

SANDERS MUST PAY.

Mrs. Cora E. Sanders was given a divorce from her husband, Arthur F. Sanders, a contractor, on the charge of desertion. She was also awarded the custody of their two children and $25 a month alimony. They were married on Sept. 21, 1904, and Sanders left her on Sept. 15, 1906.

Lorraine Catherine Plaisted Robles obtained a decree of divorce from Enrico Robles who deserted her in Salt Lake on Sept. 10, 1906. They were married in Portland on May 6, 1905.

Mrs. Minnie Berlin failed to secure a divorce and the complaint was dismissed because she had not established a residence in Salt Lake of one year. They were married in Denver on June 8, 1909, and two weeks later he borrowed $2000 from her and went to Oregon. He refused to live with her again. Mrs. Berlin returned to Salt Lake on July 19, 1908, and she began her action last June.

Beatrice Crismon Thomas was granted a divorce and restored to her maiden name. She charged Nathan Albert Thomas, who is a gambler by occupation, with desertion. They were married Dec. 10, 1902, and he deserted her on Jan. 2, 1909. She was awarded $20 a month as alimony.

Cora B. Grantham, who charged her husband, James Grantham, with non-support, was given a divorce. Grantham squandered his money for liquor. They were married in American Fork on Dec. 6, 1906, and they have two children. Mrs. Grantham was given the custody of the children, $10 a month alimony and restored to her maiden name, Cora B. Baker.

DECREES IN BANKS CASE

Mrs. Marion Banks, a milliner, was granted a divorce from O. D. Banks, president of the Banks Pattern Hat company, on the charge of desertion. They were married here on Sept. 14, 1881. For the past 18 years, Mrs. Banks testified that she had supported her family of three children who are now all grown and married.

Mrs. Lillie Neils secured a divorce from Albert H. Neils on the charge of desertion. They were married May 30, 1906, and he left her a year ago without any apparent reason.

Mrs. Rosette Young obtained a divorce from James H. Young on the charge of cruelty. When her child was three days old, he struck her in the face, she said, and used profane language. He was ordered to pay her $25 a month alimony and she was given the custody of the child.

Mrs. Marcelle Bartlett was granted a divorce from her husband, Walter L. Bartlett, because he would not work and support her. They were married May 14, 1906, in Ogden. During their married life he worked with the three weeks. Mrs. Bartlett kept house for his family and his father supported her while she lived with him.

The case of Baker against Baker for the custody of the three children was called after the regular matinee. Three witnesses were examined but no evidence was introduced. The case was continued until next week for further hearing.

BILL SEVAY CONFESSES.

William Sevay, colored, has confessed to having stolen 14 pairs of trousers from the Paris Cleaning company, at 414 south State street, last Tuesday night, according to the police. Sevay is said to have implicated M. M. Williams, colored, who, he said, had gone to Omaha. The police of the Nebraska city were notified, and a telegram came back a few hours later to the effect that Williams had been arrested and would be held pending the arrival of an officer from Salt Lake City, who will bring him back here.

DAMAGE DONE AT LIBRARY.

There is complaint at the city library about the way unknown miscreants slash up valuable works of art, to secure coveted designs and drawings. These volumes cost a good deal of money, some of them $20 each, as for instance, Owen Jones's Grammar of Ornament. They are carefully guarded, and not allowed out of the building under any circumstances. Yet some persons are sly enough and conscienceless enough to take these valuable works from their cases, watch their chance and use their pocket knives. A good deal of damage has been done in this way.

FEARS HIS COUSIN ELOPED WITH WIFE

Wm. H. Lane of Colorado Here to Hunt Her and His Babies—Disappeared Sunday.

William H. Lane, a wealthy contractor in charge of $3,000,000 construction work at the great Stanley Lake reservoir, in Colorado, arrived in Salt Lake City this morning from Denver, and asked the sheriff's office and the police to assist him in locating his wife and two children, aged 9 and 3 years. He believes that his wife has run away with his cousin, James C. Prudy, of this city, who recently listed Lane at the latter's home at Stanley Lake, for two weeks.

Mr. Lane says that the only reason he can assign for his conviction that his cousin and his wife eloped is that both disappeared last Saturday. "I want to find my wife and children. I will take her back, without even an unkind word. She is the mother of my babies. That is enough for me," he said.

Lane said that he learned from the policemen on duty at the Denver Union depot that a woman and two children of the ages of Mr. Lane's passed through the depot gates last Sunday. They were accompanied by a man, who answers the description of Lane's cousin. Lane could not learn positively where they went, but he got hold of three strong clues which led him to believe that they had returned here to settle up his affairs.

According to Lane, his wife and children left their home at Stanley Lake last Sunday morning. Denver, his wife said, that she intended visiting relatives at 1443 Raleigh street in that city. Mrs. Lane and the children drove to Broomfield, Colo., where they boarded a Denver & Pacific urban car for Denver, and her husband was able to trace her definitely that far.

Lane says that his wife told him that she would be home at 5 o'clock that night, and when she failed to come home, he went to Denver. On inquiring at the home of her relatives, whom she had said she intended visiting, Lane learned that his wife had not appeared there at all. His relatives also told him that his cousin had disappeared.

"Prudy will learn that my arm is long. I shall follow him to the ends of the earth. My business is nothing to me now. I will have but two objects from now on, until both are attained. I shall find my wife and babies. I will never rest until I hunt him down," vowed Lane.

Good Furniture vs Undesirable Kinds

Much Furniture is Manufactured that is not fit to put into any home.

Those who buy this sort discover it soon after they have made a bad investment. Poor furniture poorly put together soon shows its faults. There is another style, equally undesirable though often made of good material, this is the gaudy expensive sort, elaborately carved and called high-class furniture which is a misnomer.

In our showing we avoid these extremes and offer you selections made with the determination to give you the worth of your money. We haven't a very large department hence, have made our styles absolutely dependable.

In the Drapery Department there are Many Things Suitable for Gifts that are Much More Acceptable than the Sometimes Useless Purchase.

A good couch cover, an artistic pillow covered in some rare fabric, a pretty rug, a handsome portiere, a beautiful lace curtain, a neat door panel or many other things. If you will come in, one suggestion will lead to another and you will be gratified and pleased and the recipient will admire your good common sense in the purchase of your gift which your good faith will make both serviceable and beautiful. We have a superb selection to choose from and the prices are absolutely as low as good merchandise will warrant this establishment in offering, as the Keith-O'Brien mark is ALWAYS a guarantee.

We Have Had a Successful Season but their Still Remains a Good Assortment Mostly n What May be Called "Occasional Pieces." that Will Fit in most any where we Wish to Close there out to Make Room for Spring Purchases, Which Must Soon be Made.

Your attention is directed to the following bargains, any one of which will mean a suitable "gift" or a "good investment."

Mirrors and Sorrow

We Prepared an Assortment of exquisitely beautiful mirrors for the parlor or boudoir, perfect little gems.

To our sorrow we find that a cheap and botchy imitation has come on the market, while this does not detract from the real value and beauty of ours, it is a trade condition that the K-O-B. policy demands us to meet, hence 1-3 off will rule on these until they are closed. This makes them cheaper by far than the imitations. Here is a gift for any woman for they are so framed that they are real works of art.

To the Thrifty One

Our Drapery department offers you many ways out of your perplexity.

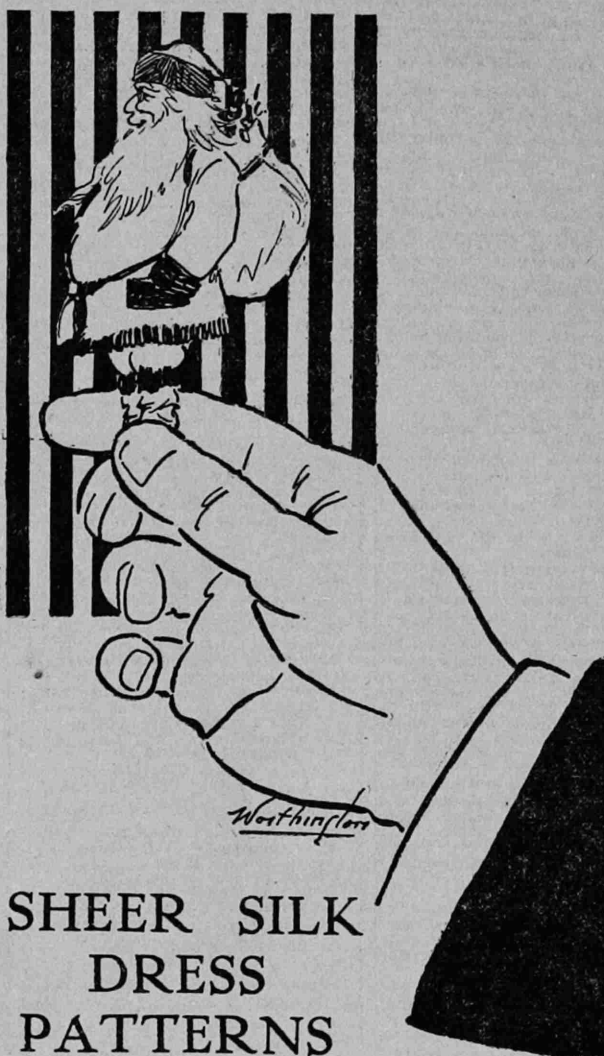

Beautiful cretonnes for shoe and laundry bags, rare tapestries for cushion tops. Cords, loops and fringes for trimmings.
